

Demonstrator for April, 2011 Carol Orr

Carol Orr enjoys painting a variety of subject matter, although it is her love of portrait and figure paintings that she finds most exciting. She has won numerous awards. Her paintings have been exhibited all over the United States. She has been teaching watercolor painting throughout the country for the past twenty years.

Carol is a signature member of the American Watercolor Society and National Watercolor Society; a Life Member of the Arizona Watercolor Association and honorary member of the Canadian Federation of Art hits. She has been a juror for many shows in the West including the Northwest Watercolor Society, The Arizona Watercolor Association, Phoenix Artists Guild and the Idaho Watercolor Society.

A portrait and figure- painter, she has been a popular workshop teacher in Canada and the United States, including at the Scottsdale Artists School in Scottsdale, Arizona.

She is an elected member of the American Watercolor Society and the National Watercolor Society and is an honorary member of the Federation of Canadian Artists.

Carol may be reached at corr11@cox.net or <http://azwatercolorlorg/co>