Jaxine Cummins

Jaxine is an awe-inspiring artist of the first caliber. The awards she has won in major shows is staggering. First and Second Places, Peoples Choice, Purchase Awards, and Best of Shows.

She works in pastels, acrylics and mixed media. All works are originals, no prints. She's won many awards on her portraits, still life and experimental art paintings. She has sold internationally, including England and Italy.

She is originally from Tacoma, Washington and arrived in Phoenix in 1947. She started painting 24 years ago and is still prolific.

Jaxine taught classes, including at the Arizona State Juvenile Corrections Center at Buckeye, AZ. "I think this is the most rewarding thing I've ever done." See "New Beginnings" on her website to view the boys' awesome art.

She has exhibited in many one-woman shows, including The Mohave Historical Museum, Corporate offices of Lin-Cum, Inc., the lobby of The Daily News-Sun newspaper and two one-woman shows at The Beatitudes. She has been juried into the Glendale Arts Council shows, as well as Shemer Art Gallery and Sky Harbor Airport Art Gallery. She is also a dedicated worker along with her husband Chuck, creating the website for the Phoenix Artist Guild.
