Eleanor Henry

Eleanor Henry, a native of Arizona, has learned the beauty of Arizona skies, deserts, and the mountains. This beauty challenges her to “put it on paper”. The results are appreciated by all who view the end Subject. She tends to be a “purist” watercolor artist.

Eleanor's works have been exhibited in State Fairs, Maricopa County Fairs, Women's Club Show, Arizona Public Service Gallery, Valley Art League, YMCA Shows, Glendale Artists Shows and Phoenix Artists Guild, winning many ribbons. Best of Show, and People Choice Awards, as well as being exhibited in corporate offices in Phoenix, are some of her many honors.

Eleanor is affiliated with Phoenix Artists Guild and Arizona Watercolor Association as well as Critique Encounters XII, and is a juried member of Arizona Art Alliance. She has been President of Arizona Art Association, and a judge for Paradise Valley Art Show Association
