

Program Demonstrators

SEPTEMBER 22, 2008: Dick Phillips Demonstrator

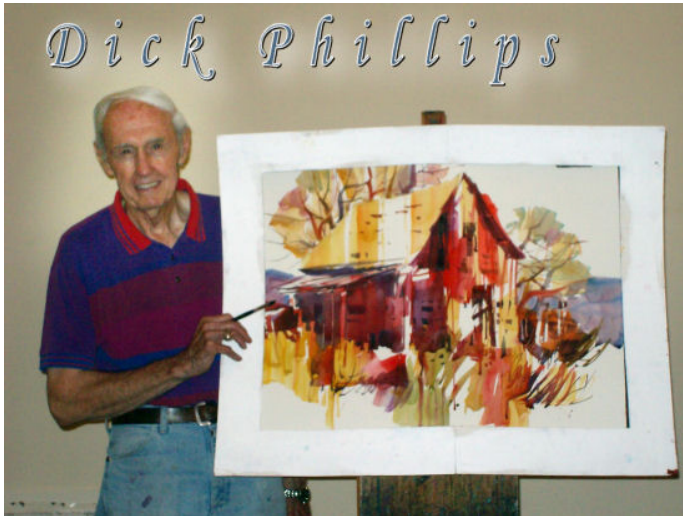

Photo courtesy of Carmen Timm

Dick Phillips is a full-time professional artist with over 35 years teaching experience. His work has received major awards in numerous national and regional juried shows. He has had 40 solo exhibitions. Publications include "The Best of Watercolor 2" Rockport Publishers; "The Artists's Muse", "Painting From the Inside Out" and "Freshen Your Paintings With New Ideas" Northlight; "Faces of Arizona", Art Renaissance Foundation; "International Artists Magazine", October-November 1998 issue and August-September 2003; "Watercolor Magic", April 2004 and October 2006 issues.

Dick studied watercolor with noted California artist Robert E. Wood and Milford Zornes. He is a juried member of the Arizona Watercolor Association, a signature member of the National Watercolor society, Watercolor West, and the Southwest Watercolor Society. His work was recently included in the Arts in Embassies Program sponsored by the United States Department of State. He is listed in "Who's Who in American Art".

Gallery Representation

Duley-Jones Gallery, Scottsdale, AZ

Raku Gallery, Jerome, AZ

Courtyard Gallery, New Buffalo, MI

Heller Art Images, Omaha, NE